

NUMS POLICY - RE-TAKES IN MBBS & BDS PROFESSIONAL EXAMINATIONS

(APPROVED IN 22ND ACM DATED 23RD DECEMBER 2021)

1. Consequent to Pakistan Medical Commission (PMC) Medical & Dental UG Education (Admissions, Curriculum & Conduct) Regulations 2021 – (Amended) dated 4th June 2021, the following Policy for Re-takes in MBBS & BDS Professional Examinations is framed:-

a. Permissible chances (availed or un-availed)

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----------------|
| (1) | 1 st & 2 nd Prof MBBS - | 04 chances each |
| (2) | 3 rd & 4 th Prof MBBS - | 06 chances each |
| (3) | 1 st Prof BDS - | 04 chances |
| (4) | 2 nd & 3 rd Prof BDS - | 06 chances each |
| (5) | Final Prof MBBS & BDS - | Unlimited |

b. Failing to pass the professional exams after the permissible number of chances (availed or un-availed), a student shall stand terminated from the respective academic program and the seat shall be considered vacant which shall be filled under the migration policy.

c. Except final prof, for all prof exams of MBBS & BDS, there shall be an annual and a supplementary exam only in an academic year. For final prof MBBS & BDS, there shall be two supplementary exams in an academic year.

- d. A student failing in both the supplementary exams of final prof MBBS & BDS and in the supplementary exam of all other prof exams of MBBS & BDS in an academic year, shall be considered detained, to appear in the failing subject(s) with the next session.
 - e. The seat of a detained student shall not be filled through transfer or any other means and at all times the total strength of students in the institution shall not exceed the gross total seats allocated for all applicable academic years of the program.
 - f. If a detained student desires to improve upon his / her internal assessment of the failed subject(s), he/she shall be required to attend a minimum of 75% of classes in the failed subject(s). However, as per PMC Regulation, no additional tuition fee shall be charged from the student during the detained year(s).
 - g. The exam fee shall be paid by the detained student for the subject(s) only in which appearing.
2. The policy shall be effective with immediate effect.